

Citing Sources in MLA Style → () - parentheses

"Quote often, but not at great length."
 ① black ~~black~~. yes, sir. I am a woman!" (128).
 → [] - brackets

Per body paragraph:
 2 quotes minimum.

quote → end of quote
 → end of sentence
 → your

② Alex's depravity is shown through his vicious language strongly → callous disregard for humanity: "I could have → chained has glazies read horror show" (92).

③ When Alex expresses his desire to "chain his ^{straw} [enemy's] glazies read horror show", the reader realizes the extent of Alex's depravity (92).

④ An ellipsis is 3 dots

"word space dot space dot space dot space dot space word" (91).

- can be used pre, mid, or post quote.

chain . . . read horror show

⑤ black n black, 'No, don't do that, he said' (106).

Works Cited

Crichton, Michael. Sphere. New York:

City of Publishers

Ballantyne, 1987.

Publishing company

year 100's
version Pool publishers

instant second line

-more than one work cited? Put them into alphabetical order according to authors' last names.