

LiveWork

Medical Lab Assistants Sponsorships

Interior Health is sponsoring eight current or recently graduated high school students or Aboriginal Job Seekers to become a Medical Lab Assistant (MLA).

Perks*

- $5,000 Tuition Reimbursement
 - (Tuition is roughly $5,000 + fees, books, etc. for the 8 month course)
- Paid practicum
- Guaranteed job in your community after graduation ($25.31/hr)

All perks are based on and paid out upon successful completion of the MLA Program*

Play

Have questions? Want to connect?

Contact us today:

careers@interiorhealth.ca

jobs.interiorhealth.ca

What are Medical Lab Assistants?

Medical laboratory assistants do pre-analytical functions. This involves, for example, collecting blood samples (phlebotomy), processing and moving specimens, and preparing special chemicals (called reagents) for use in testing. In BC, medical laboratory assistants also perform electrocardiograms. Click here for more information

Who is Eligible?

- High School students who have or will have graduated in either 2021 or 2022
- OR Aboriginal Job Seekers of any age
- Applicants must meet the entry requirements of a BC Society of Laboratory Science approved program (list of approved programs found here).
 - Virtual or In-Person Available
 - Courses are typically 8 months
- MLA admission requirements vary by program but typically include:
 - Grade 12 or equivalent
 - English 12 with a min 'B' grade
- One applicant will be selected from each of the following communities:
 - Castlegar
 - Merritt
 - Salmon Arm
 - Williams Lake
 - Lillooet
 - Nelson
 - Trail
 - Vernon

Click on your community to apply!

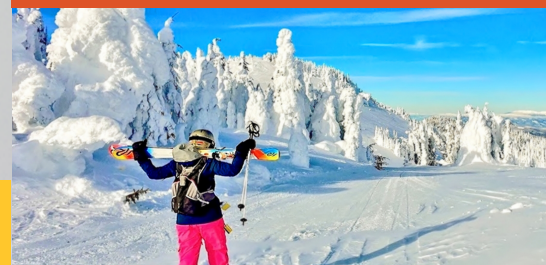

Live

Work

Play

Have questions? Want to connect?

Contact us today:

careers@interiorhealth.ca

jobs.interiorhealth.ca