Parent Financial Pledge (READ CAREFULLY)

High Performers Golf Academy (HPGA) runs on a very strict budget. Our single-minded goal is to bring the highest quality golf skills program at the best possible delivered price. Therefore, significant investments and commitments are made up front at HPGA to provide the proper facilities, top-level instructors, and leading-edge training tools to deliver the highest quality and value-based program available. Expenses are not made on low-payback activities/materials. At HPGA, we define payback as directly building your child's golf skill toolbox.

Therefore, student cancellations will directly affect our ability to deliver on our promise to you and to the program. It is our expectation, that as a fully committed supporter of HPGA, you recognize and accept your full financial obligations up front. Please read this carefully.

- ✓ Sports and other associated activities and/or any unassociated activities outside HPGA all come with injury risk. I fully accept 100% of that risk on behalf of my child. I recognize and accept that HPGA cannot be held financially accountable for this injury risk.
- ✓ I recognize and fully accept that I cannot hold the HPGA responsible for any financial reimbursement if I decide to withdraw my child from the program due to any reason. Whether that be injury, illness, re-location, choice to attend another program or for any other reason. If I withdraw my child from this program between June 2, 2023 and Jan 30 2024, I fully accept that I forfeit the full amount of any and all cheques that have been cashed or payments made up to or at that time. I understand and accept that absolutely no refunds will be provided.
- ✓ Families with students attending schools outside the Vernon area accept the additional travel costs incurred to attend HPGA.
- ✓ Any loss or charge assigned HPGA as a result of confirmed damage or theft caused by my child will be covered in full by me.

By signing this Parents Pledge you attest to have read, fully understood and accept your full financial obligations to the HPGA and its teachers, instructors, facilities, staff and any club visitors. If you agree please provide your name and signature below
