

Did you know?? WorkBC can help youth aged 16 – 30 who are looking for work or transitioning to the workforce.

- Students with Disabilities or Youth at Risk in their final year of high school or post-secondary education may be eligible for WorkBC Employment Services if these individuals are:
 1. In their final year of high school or post secondary education
 2. Of legal school leaving age in the Province of BC
 3. Transitioning from the school system to the labour market

“At Risk Youth” is defined as individuals who are 16-30 years of age and are or were in care of the Ministry of Children and Family Development (MCFD) and/or Delegated Aboriginal Agencies (DAAs).

- Case Managed “at risk youth” with an open WorkBC case have access to unlimited personal counselling related to gaining or retaining employment
- All Case Managed clients who have experienced violence and/or abuse are eligible for counselling up to 10 sessions
- All youth have access to the new Youth Resource Centre to job search, explore careers, build resumes and access workshops
- Employability workshops, including static webinars are available to all youth both case managed and non-case managed. Workshops topics include Interview Skills, Transferable Skills, Job Search Strategies and Resume Building.
- Youth who have been out of high school for 2+ years and have an attachment to EI may be eligible for.....Training, Wage Subsidy, Self Employment Services
- Referrals to external Youth Employment Programs that offer
 1. Paid Classroom time
 2. Resume, Networking and Interview skills
 3. Certificates
 4. Support of a Job Coach & Job Placement

For more information, please contact 250-545-2215 ext. 240 or visit www.workbccentre-vernon.ca